PREPARING AND DELIVERING GREAT TALKS

Session 4: Feedback

One of the best ways to grow and develop in our communications is asking someone to give us some feedback, letting us know what we're doing well and where we can improve.

Can you think of someone who is both honest and kind who you could ask for feedback? Remember, they don't need to be an expert in preaching just someone who is for you.

Pause the video after you've watched Andy give his talk. What would you say was good? What could be improved on? It's great to get into the habit of looking at what other speakers do well, and not so well, so that we can learn from them.

PREPARING AND DELIVERING GREAT TALKS

IF YOU KNOW SOMEONE LOVES YOU, IF YOU KNOW THEY ARE FOR YOU AND THEY WANT THE BEST FOR YOU, THEN YOU RECEIVE THEIR CRITICISM AND CORRECTION.

What is the one area for
you where you think you need some work? What can you do in the coming days
and weeks to develop and improve?

HOLD ON TO THE PASSION, HOLD ON TO THE PURPOSE AS YOU SEEK TO COMMUNICATE GOD'S WORD.

Next steps:

Consider as a group whether you could continue to meet and to give short talks to one another, putting what you've learned into practice and offering each other feedback to help you improve.

If you've done this on your own, enlist the help of a trusted person who would be willing to listen to your talks and help you develop your gift.

If you'd like to learn more about preparing and delivering great talks, these topics are explored in more detail in Ali's book, Loud & Clear. You can also watch the talks from the Loud & Clear training days on our YouTube channel (www.youtube.com/soulsurvivoruk).
